Quotes from Participants

I feel like I've taken living water from this course. On my prayer list I have around 40 people, and in a very short time 4 people have accepted Jesus Christ and been baptized.

Sean Liu, San Francisco
Chinese Alliance Church

The Pray and Relate cards were key to me—just to have a solid method of praying for my loved ones to come to know Christ. Not only praying them through the steps, but praying for what is going on in their lives.

Debbie Wilber,
The Salvation Army

God has given me more love and more urgency through this course.

Vivien Tso, Hope
Evangelical Free Church,
San Francisco

It's great to learn, pray, and serve with many other outreaching friends.

Spencer Peng, Abundant
Life Christian Fellowship

Practical tips for challenging times

- What to do if someone asks a question you can't answer
- Your Plan B when people won't go to church
- What if you're shy or fear rejection
- The frequent role of family members in Outreach Discipling
- Finding more time for what counts
- Pray and Relate Cards—How they help
- How Heaven Together adds to your church and prevents potential pastor burnout.
- The fringe benefits of becoming a Fisher of Men
- What happens when you help people find answers to their questions in the Bible

5 Questions to Help You

Pray and decide if this training is for you.

If your answer is "yes," check the statement.

- Have you invited someone you love to church and received a turn-down?
- Have you missed the joy of actively helping someone trust Jesus Christ as Forgiver and Lord plus helping them become a Fisher of Men?
- Are you aware of someone you love who might spend eternity without God and in eternal torment?
- Do you need more resources than bringing people to church and waiting for your pastor to do all the work of leading them to Christ?
- Have you had a heated discussion with a non-believing loved one and gotten no where?

If you had more than one "Yes," please pray and decide. This day can add more confidence, joy, and God's fruit to your life!

Conference Leader—Dru Scott Decker

Her passion for this training started after internationally-known author Dru Scott stopped listening to her mother talk about Jesus, yet her mother continued to pray.

Then a busy neighbor reached out to her, prayed for her daily for six years, helped her find answers in the Bible, and trust Jesus as Forgiver and Lord.

But her neighbor, Elizabeth Paeth Lasker, didn't stop there. She also inspired passing the torch by showing how to help others become Fishers of Men. This start led to research, practice, and leading Outreach Discipling seminars for over ten years.

Over two million people around the globe have read Dru Scott books in six languages. She is the author of How to Put More Time in Your Life, Customer Satisfaction: The Other Half of Your Job, and Stress That Motivates. Harvest House published: Finding More Time in Your Life. Her forthcoming book is Heaven Together.

"I know of no one in the world who does a better job of training than Dru Scott."* ...Peter F. Drucker

"Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." Mark 1:17

What people say:

Where I didn't think there was a way, this class has given me actual tools to share my love of Jesus with my friends and family.

Karen Habegger,
Cornerstone Church

The course was great. You get tools to build and share your story. I really enjoyed Dru Scott's speaking style and also her enthusiasm for God.

Participate in God's Heart—That none should perish

After attending Heaven Together, I started praying daily for my mother to experience the love of Christ. Then when I was visiting her, she prayed to receive Christ and is now attending church!

Breanne Weismann,
International Baptist Church,
Singapore

Heaven Together training has helped me get organized to pray and do what I already wanted--help the people I love enjoy the healing power of Christ Jesus.

Cathy Osgood, First Baptist Church, San Francisco

Outreach Discipling makes the difference!

Rather than one set of steps for every situation, you can select what fits your situation from a buffet of practical tips.

You'll gain new resources for Outreach Discipling with your family and friends.

This focus calls for different tools than evangelism with strangers, although some have called Heaven Together Training a welcome mat to evangelism.

And rather than only helping people believe in Christ, you'll continue to help them have the joy and skills of being a Fisher of Men.

Take Aways

- Spending eternity with your family and friends in heaven.
- The joy of helping people experience God's peace, guidance, and healing.
- Easy-to-learn ways to pray for and relate with non-believing family and friends.
- More meaning, confidence, and focus.
- Honoring Christ Jesus.
- Practical ways to join God in His priority that none should perish.
